Order Detail

Shipped

Your order has been shipped according to the method you selected during checkout. You may view the tracking status by clicking the applicable Tracking Number below or in the e-mail we are sending to you. However, since shipping carriers do not always update tracking information immediately, the status of your shipment may be deferred. If the Order Status changed to Shipped on a weekend or holiday when shipping carriers are closed, the shipping carrier will actually process your order on the next business day.
